

Feeling landlocked? Set sail on a full-day voyage of exploration, playing the musical byways of Renaissance and Baroque Europe. We'll explore music about water in its many incarnations and investigate how ideas of flow can improve our playing. Works by Palestrina, Telemann, Lasso, and more.

About Anne

Anne Timberlake has performed in 34 US states, playing repertoire from Bach to 21st-century premieres. She holds degrees in recorder performance from Oberlin Conservatory and Indiana University. Critics have described her playing as "dazzling" (Chicago Classical Review) and "preternaturally persuasive" (The Ann Arbor Observer). A Fulbright grantee, Anne won Early Music America's Naxos Recording Competition with her ensemble Wayward Sisters. Anne is a passionate and prolific teacher, and regularly leads workshops across the United States as well as webinars and online courses. She is on faculty at Oberlin Conservatory's Baroque Performance Institute. Find Anne at www.annetimberlake.com.
