

Andrew Levy grew up in Berkeley, CA, and studied music at the University of California at Berkeley and the Royal Conservatory of the Hague. He has performed in the United States, the Netherlands, and Germany with groups including Voices of Music, Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra, San Francisco Opera, the Royal Wind Music, American Bach Soloists, Marin Baroque, MUSA, and Ensemble Mirabile. He is a co-director of the Junior Recorder Society and has taught recorder at the SFEMS Recorder Workshop, Music Discovery Workshop, and Marin Headlands Workshop. He lives in Albany, CA, and gives lessons, in person and online, to recorder players of all ages and all levels.