

Lawrence Zukof (recorder, voice, and viola da gamba), an early music specialist, has performed with numerous ensembles, including the Boston Camerata, the Civic Orchestra of Boston, Orchestra New England, and the Southern CT Camerata. Larry has sung with the Pro-Arte Singers (CT), the Yale Camerata and currently, a member of a vocal quartet at the historic Center Church on the New Haven Green.

With extensive experience as a workshop leader for various chapters of the American Recorder Society (ARS), Larry is part of the ARS national Traveling Teacher Program, Music Director of the Eastern CT Recorder Society, and on the teaching faculty for the Junior Recorder Society (a program of Voices of Music). Larry has also been on the faculty at Early Music summer programs at Pinewoods, Amherst Early Music, and he teaches at the Neighborhood Music School (New Haven, CT) as well as privately.

Larry received his Master of Music degree in early music from the New England Conservatory of Music (Boston, MA). He was the Executive Director of the Neighborhood Music School (1996-2014) and the Brookline Music School, MA (1984-1996).